A wheelchair user and a companion will be seated together. General tickets, wheelchair tickets and companion tickets can be purchased together within the maximum number of tickets that can be requested. However, please note that general ticket seating will be in a separate area from the wheelchair and companion ticket seating area.

Admission will be free (no seat / no ticket required) for one child per one ticket holder, if the child is under the age of 2 (as of the competition day).
Step 4
Adding 2nd Choice tickets

If you want to choose a second choice option for your selected Session, click on the “Add 2nd Choice” button.

Selecting a second choice session/tickets allows you to increase your chances of being awarded tickets. You will only be awarded tickets for either your first or your second choice option – never both – or due to the extremely high demand for tickets, you might not be awarded tickets for either option.
*You may not choose the same session for your first and second choice.
*Please remember that you may only select one first/second choice for this sales phase, otherwise, your application will be invalidated.

If you want to add 2nd choice, please do so before completing your application.

When you add tickets to your cart

The selected ticket(s) have been added to your cart. Please note that the additional lottery only allows you to apply for 1 session. (You can select a 2nd Choice session and can accept the Cascade option.) Only applications submitted by those who were not awarded any tickets in the first lottery will be accepted, and you must use the same TOKYO 2020 ID as was used in the first lottery. Applications that include multiple sessions, applications by those who were awarded tickets in the first lottery, and applications submitted by TOKYO 2020 ID account holders who did not participate in the first lottery using that same ID will be disregarded and no tickets will be awarded. If your application meets the above conditions, please continue by clicking [Go to Cart] [pop003]

The message will appear when you add selected tickets to your [Cart].

The system will not stop you from adding applying more than one first choice session with one TOKYO 2020 ID. Please confirm the number of sessions you apply before completing your application.

You can check your cart 24 hours during the application period.
