Notes related to Visa payment

Visa is the only payment brand accepted.

- Prepare a Visa card with you. All cards with a Visa mark are Visa cards. Check the floor limit if you are using a credit card, account balance and floor limit if you are using a debit card, account balance if you are using a prepaid card. Please contact your card issuing company to check the maximum amount you are able to spend on your card.

- Customers who have registered Visa Secure (formerly known as Verified by Visa) may be prompted to enter your Visa Secure password within the purchase process. For any questions regarding your password, please contact your card issuing company. Visa Secure (formerly known as Verified by Visa) is a system to verify the identity of the cardholder and a service to prevent unauthorised use of payment cards by third parties other than the cardholder.

- If you choose to pay by Visa, the settlement will be made immediately within the purchase process. Please note that no change and cancellations can be made once you complete your purchase process.

- If paying by Visa card, the name of the cardholder must be the same as that of the ticket purchaser.
  *If your name is not printed on the card as in the case of some prepaid cards, you may use the card as long as it is registered under your name.

- When paying by Visa, you will be prompted to enter CVV2 (Security Code) in addition to your card number and card expiry date. CVV2 (Card Verification Value)* is a 3-digit security code printed beside the signature slip on the back side of your card. This number is to confirm that the card is with you.

- Please contact your card issuing company or bank to confirm when the amount will be deducted. Merchant name that would be printed on the credit card statement will be Tokyo 2020 Games.

For more details about Visa payment, please also check FAQ in the Tokyo 2020 Official Ticket Website.

About VISA Payment
- Enter Visa card number with single-byte numbers. For VISA payments, you can choose to use VISA Credit (credit card), VISA Debit (limit payment card) or Visa Prepaid (prepaid payment cards). Please check with your card issuing company to check details about conditions of use and payment limit etc.
- If the total amount due exceeds JPY 300,000, you are required to pay by a VISA card, and the name of the cardholder must be the same as that of the ticket purchase. The payment limit for VISA cards varies according to the terms of the card issuing company. Please check the maximum amount you are able to spend on your card with your card issuing company.
- Paralympic Games Tokyo 2020 Official Ticket Website wants to ensure the security of all our customers, and to prevent the unauthorized use of payment cards. As a Visa cardholder, your transaction is protected by Visa and you may be required to complete additional checks to verify your identity. These checks are done using Visa Secure (formerly known as Verified by Visa). As part of this, you may be prompted to enter your Visa Secure password or one-time password previously set with your card issue. For any questions on whether your card supports Visa Secure or requesting your Visa Secure password/OTP, please contact your card issuing company.
- When you see Visa Debit card, the payment amount is instantly drawn from your bank account. You can apply for Visa Debit cards from debit card issuing bank websites or branches. You can find the list of Visa Debit issuing banks from Visa website.
- You can also use Visa prepaid cards, in which the payment amount is instantly drawn from your prepaid account. You can find the list of Visa Prepaid issuing companies from this website.
- You can also find out more about Visa payment in the frequently asked questions FAQ. Please search by typing “Visa”.

About additional fees
